

FFN

Fragility Fracture Network

CARING AFTER A FRACTURE (CARE)

Educational Web Series for Carers of Older Patients with Fragility Fracture

An initiative of the
Fragility Fracture Network
Education Committee

- 13 Animated, interactive modules
- Up-to-date information
- User-friendly website
- Innovative learning
- Created by top experts
- Free of charge

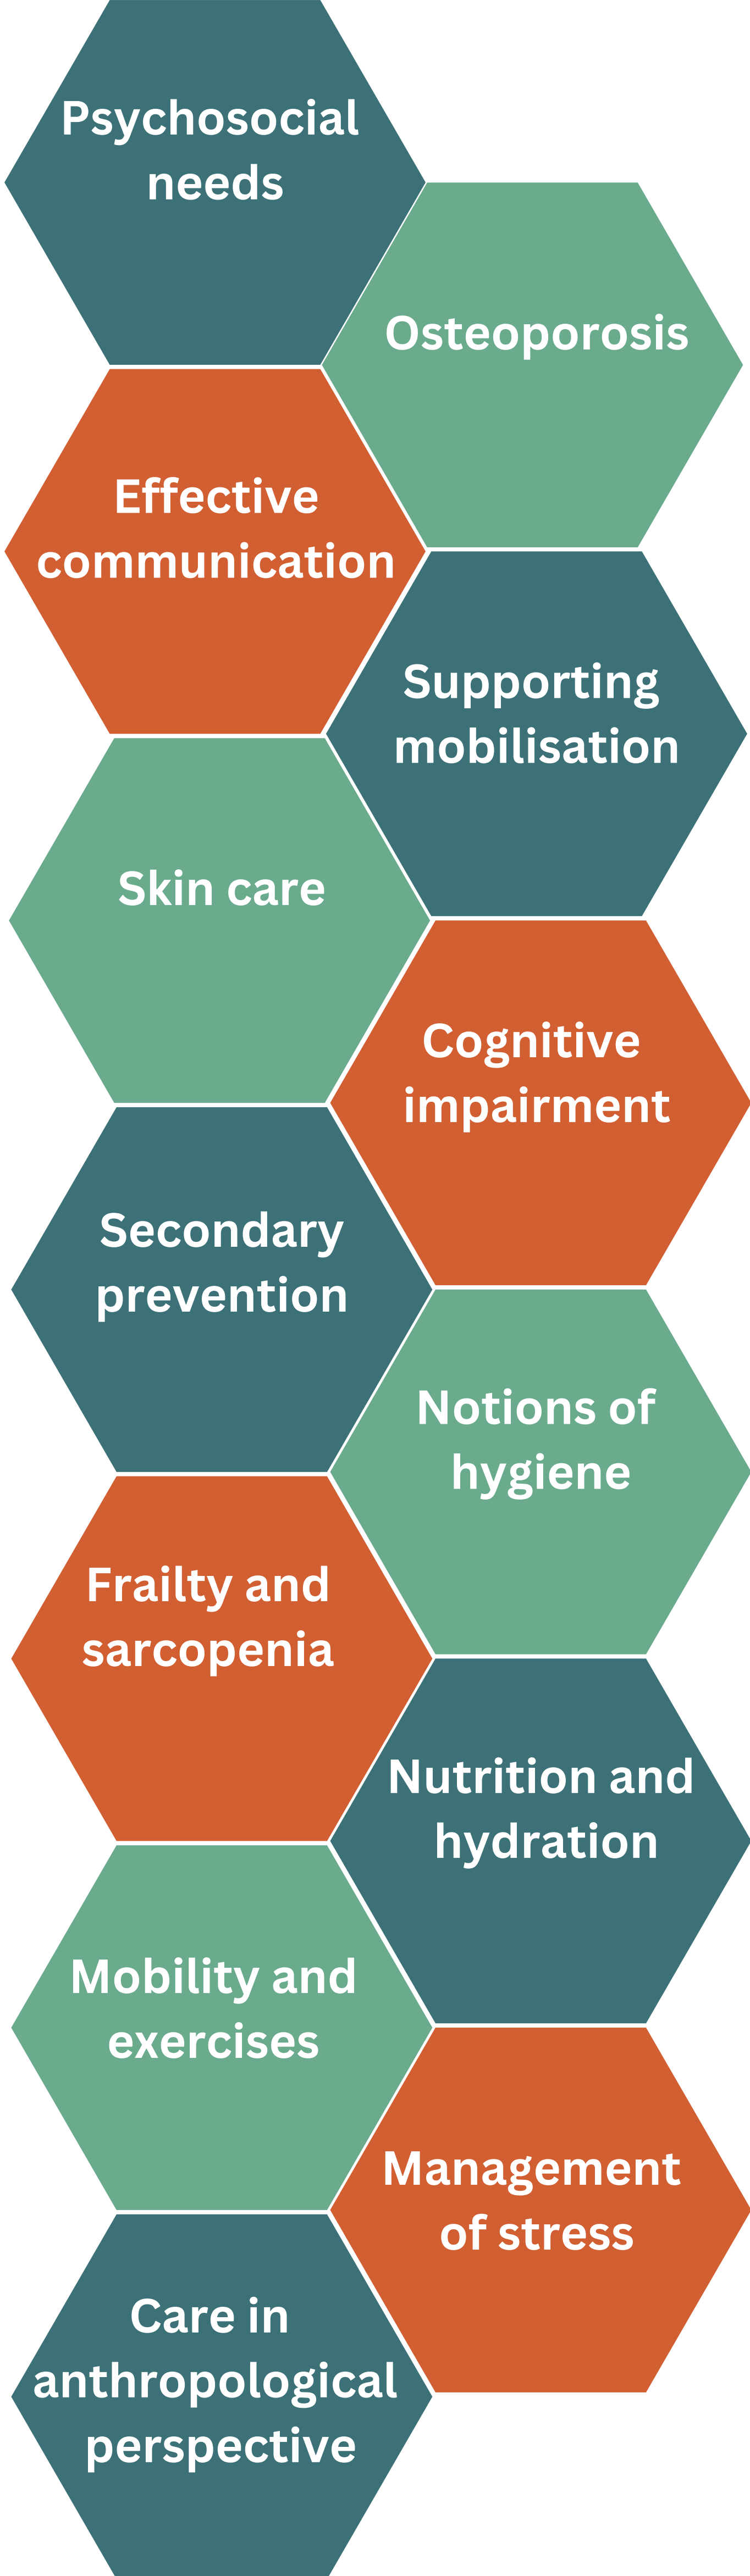

Scan for information

Supported by

AMGEN

What are the facts?

Carers are an important resource for older patients suffering from a fragility fracture as they play a key role during their recovery. Education of carers contribute at reducing their burden.

Take a look at the Osteoporosis and Mobilisation Support modules now, without registering!

Osteoporosis as a cause of fragility fracture

Supporting mobilisation after hip fracture

info@ff-education.com
ff-education.com