

Current Situation

Created FFN USA through a partnership with the International Geriatric Fracture Society in 2023.

Challenges

Getting alignment and communications distributed in an effective manner to the numerous organizations that have a focus on advancing geriatric fracture care in the US.

National Activities 2023

Formation of FFN USA in partnership with IGFS
4-Part Educational Webinar Series in partnership with FFN North America
Expanded Leadership Development
2-Day IGFS Virtual Annual Meeting

Exemplar initiatives

AGS Co-Care Program
AOA Own the Bone Fracture Liaison Service
IGFS CORE Certification Program for Hospitals
IGFS Published Best Practices for Outpatient Rehabilitation

2024 Plans/ Areas of focus

Leadership Meeting of Partner Organizations
Educational Conference – FFN
Regional Meeting
4-Part Educational Webinar Series
Virtual IGFS Annual Meeting
Podcast Series Development

Partners

International Geriatric Fracture Society-FFN USA
Orthopaedic Trauma Association & AAOS
American Geriatric Society
Bones Health Osteoporosis Association
US Bone and Joint Initiative
American Society for Bone and Mineral Research
American Physical Therapy Association
National Association of Orthopaedic Nurses

Contacts

Fraser Cobbe, Executive Director
fcobbe@cobbemanagement.com
www.geriatricfracture.org