

WEBINAR

Multidisciplinary approach to surgical site and healthcare associated infections in orthogeriatric patients

Thursday 26 Sept 2024, 18.00 CET

SESSION I

The socio-economic burden on patient welfare and healthcare services

Anastasios Nikolaides (Orthopaedic surgeon, UK)

Identifying sepsis in the fragility patient

Tarunya Vedutla (Orthogeriatrician, UK)

Surgical site surveillance

Konstantinos Kothonas (Nurse, Greece)

SESSION II

The surgical management of periprosthetic joint infection

Eleftherios Tsiridis (Orthopaedic surgeon, Greece)

The colonization and infections by multidrug resistance organisms

Rob Townsend (Microbiologist, UK)

SESSION III

The role of antibiotic loaded bone cement in the prevention of PJI in the Orthogeriatric patient

Omer Salar (Orthopaedic Surgeon, UK)

Debridement, antibiotics, and implant retention (DAIR) procedure

Oliver Blocker (Orthopaedic Surgeon, UK)

Cases of practical use of antibiotic loaded cement in trauma

Frede Frihagen (Orthopaedic Surgeon, Norway)

REGISTER NOW

SCAN ME